Assessment Criteria

A Christmas carol competition is a festive way to showcase our musical talents and celebrate the spirit of the season. There are different ways to organize and judge such a competition. However, our carols at the 'KRIST JAYANTI SANGEET SURBHI UTSAV' (KJSSU), will be judged on the common and general criteria given below:

- Voice Quality. This criterion evaluates the balance, tone quality, and sound projection of the singers. It also considers the harmony, blending, intonation, breathing, and pitch balance of the group. A good voice quality is clear, pleasant, and consistent throughout the performance. This criterion is worth 20 points out of 100.
- Technical Competency. This criterion assesses the accuracy and proficiency of the singers in terms of rhythm, diction, dynamics, and timing. It also considers the difficulty and suitability of the chosen songs or medley. A good technical competency is precise, confident, and appropriate for the level and style of the singers. This criterion is worth 20 points out of 100.
- Creativity. This criterion measures the originality and expression of the singers in terms of interpretation, style, and execution. It also considers the use of improvisation, variation, or embellishment to enhance the songs or medley. A good creativity is attractive, engaging, and distinctive from other performances. This criterion is worth 40 points out of 100.
- Overall Artistic Impression. This criterion reflects the overall impact and appeal of the performance to the audience and the judges. It also considers the presentation, choreography, costume, and props of the singers. A good overall artistic impression is memorable, enjoyable, and coherent with the theme and message of the songs or medley. This criterion is worth 20 points out of 100.
